Grand Knight's Message

By Eric Snyder, Grand Knight

Brother Knights:

July has been a great month starting with a fabulous turn out for our annual blood drive. We were able to donate 17 pints of blood. Thank you to all of you who were able to give! A very big thank you to Darryl Vadell for running the show and making sure everything went smooth. Also a big thanks to Lark and Tracie Sowell for cooking that wonderful meal. I know how much effort goes in to that, so I thank ya'll for cooking for us. It is very much appreciated.

Marquette had its first offshore fishing trip also known as "Paul's Phantastic Phantasy Phishing Trip". And not only did we have a great time, but we brought home some of the best fish you can get. Thank you to Paul Gagnet and Paul Elmer for putting on this great adventure. It was a wonderful experience!

Coming up on August 3rd will be our annual picnic. It is going to be at Lafreniere Park shelter #6. Set up will be for 9 am for anyone that can come help. The picnic will start at 11 am and end at 5 pm. We will have all the great food we normally have and also all the games, the egg toss, tug-a-war, sack race, horse shoes, etc. Remember this is a family and friends event so bring family and friends.

Marquette is starting up a softball team. Anyone interested in this should get with Tony Grego by August 4th. I would like to thank Doug Saunders for being our new essay contest chairman. Also I would like to remind everyone that August 12 is Farther McGivney's birthday. Hope to see everyone real soon, but till then Live, Love and Laugh!

Insurance ProgramYour Shield For LifeA founding notion: Protecting the breadwinner's income.

By Eric Ottemann, General Agent

While jobs are safer in 2013, accidents, injuries, and illnesses that can impact your ability to work still happen. Most, in fact, do not happen on the jobsite or place of employment. Did you know that a 2011 study revealed that more than 95 percent of the long-term disability claims on file were not work related?

The "loss" of the breadwinner does not have to mean that person's death; it can also mean the loss of the breadwinner's income. Consider that loss for a moment. How would your family fare if a source of income suddenly stopped? Could a dual-income family manage on one income stream? What about young families with a working father and a mother who cares for the children? What if his income halted due to an accident or illness?

I've heard some people say they have coverage at work, but too many aren't sure what this coverage entails, how much income it would provide or for how long. Having this protection counts for something, certainly, but it isn't "yours"; it's provided by the company for which you work at their discretion. It could be eliminated tomorrow.

That's where a personally-owned disability income insurance product, like Income Armor, comes into play. It can offer valuable income replacement in the event of an injury or illness. While Father McGivney likely never imagined such a product in 1882, I'm sure he would wholeheartedly endorse the protection it can provide to a family. If you have a job, you must know about this coverage.

Entitlements

By Francis Celino. PGK

There is much debate today about entitlements. Add to this the new word in advertisements for want or need is "deserves" and you have a new outlook on things. "Get the skin, good nights' rest, teeth, body, hair, abs, you deserve. We sometimes look with ridicule on the ads and with contempt on the governmental entitlements. But when it comes to ourselves, we feel we are entitled to or deserve certain things.

One thing that comes to mind is drinking and eating at Marquette's meetings. Many brother knights feel they are entitled to or deserve to eat and drink for free. "I was Grand Knight, I helped at the Special Olympics, I tended bar at Mardi Gras. Thus, I am entitled to or deserve to eat and drink for free."

None of us deserve anything or are entitled to anything. Everything we have, from our home down to the clothes on our backs, is a gift from God our Father and on loan to us as we will have to give it all back one day. It is freely given with nothing expected in return except your love for Him.

To show your thankfulness for those gifts, give freely to help defray the cost of the food and drinks provided at the meetings. Buy a 50/50 ticket; drop a couple of bucks in the donations jar by the food. You don't deserve nor are you entitled to partake freely. And one final reminder: "Take what you want, but eat what you take." Filling up your plate just to throw it away is disgusting. ♦

Reflections

Book of Proverbs

- 10:12 Hatred stirs old quarrels, but love overlooks insults.
- 10:14 A wise man hold his tongue. Only a fool blurts out everything he knows; that only leads to sorrow and trouble.
- 10:15 The rich man's wealth is his only strength. The poor man's poverty is his only curse.
- 10:17 Anyone willing to be corrected is on the path of righteousness. Anyone refusing has lost his chance.
- 10:18 To hate is to be a liar; to slander is to be a fool. ♦

It's time

PICNIC

Be reminded that this year's annual picnic will not be at Notre Dame Seminary due to construction.

Instead, if you want to enjoy all the fun and attend the picnic, then you need to be at Lafreniere Park in Metairie.

Because this year's venue lacks a swimming pool, the Marquette Picnic Committee has planned more activities and games, such as horseshoes, sack races, tug-o-war, egg toss and much more! There will also be plenty of food and drinks!

Picnic Committee Addresses Controversy

By Mark Carver, Sports Editor

To eliminate the controversy which tarnished last year's sack race, the Picnic Committee reminds all competitors that the official rules established by the Marquette Sack Racing Committee state that the participant must cross the finish line with both feet inside the sack.

Last year's controversy surrounded the unorthodox actions of Shane Collins and Jeff Hoerner who dove across the finish line to finish first and second, respectively, and surpass Kenny Kee.

Although Collins' and Hoerner's hands crossed the finish line in front of Kee, race officials disqualified both racers and ruled Kee was the first racer to properly cross the finish line while still inside his sack.

Marquette reminds competitors that victory must be achieved by absolutely fair means and by honest and just play. ♦
