RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS

It is strongly recommended that each participant carefully review this page before completing the rest of the application.

1. Only High School Seniors who are practicing Catholics are eligible.
2. If both parents are deceased, legal guardian or foster parent may sign the form.
3. It is recommended that all sections of the application be answered if possible.
4. You must use the space on the application first, and if the space is insufficient, you may attach an additional sheet(s).
5. If an additional sheet is used, we recommend that you use 12-point font and label each section with the same title found on the application.
6. We recommend each nominee carefully consider what section of the application his or her information best fits. Duplication of information in more than one section will not be beneficial to the applicant in any way.
7. Information entered on the form should only consist of the nominee's Junior and Senior years.
8. Nomination form must be signed by the nominee's Principal or High School Counselor, Pastor or Associate Pastor, and the Grand Knight of the Council submitting the application.
9. It is preferable that you use the online Interactive Form found at <https://www.louisianakc.org/programs/cyla/> Click on the word "Application" to open the latest version of the CYLA application. Once you have completed all sections, print a hard copy of the form. You should be able to save the form in your computer. LEGIBILITY IS VERY IMPORTANT.
10. Each student must submit the original form to their Council with all required signatures on Page 8.

Formed in 1892, the Knights of Columbus is the world's largest Catholic fraternal organization.

Membership is open to practicing Catholic men who are 18 years old or older.

Knights support and serve the Church, their community, their family and youth and those in need. Knights are men of faith and men of action.

Knights (and family of knights) also receive exclusive access to certain college scholarships and exclusive access to top rated life insurance and retirement products.
